

Hide & Seek

OPENING CHANTS

Cover your eyes from the truth walls surround me from who I am hid in darkness, covered in shame painting our skin, we were banned Count to ten, hear the voices follow the footsteps of our past look in places, where blood flows deep take a breath and make it last take a peak, but don't you cry from what you see, are you scared? underneath, what is buried inside me, the scars we bare find your friends, find the clues that'll lead you back to who you are your roots are calling, whispered softly you are found where you belong

CHORUS

come and find me, come and find me cause I've been hiding, I've been hiding if you feel alone, or if your language is gone it's up to you to seek what's hidden or lost sing come this way, Gwa gwa sa 'a ka look for your spirit, Kunuta Hubutsen do you know there's a story beneath your feet, on this sacred land, we're playing hide and seek

I'm tired of feeling invisible or being ignored been living a nightmare, I'm dreaming for more seeking a place where I'm safe, I'm seeing the storms I'm sick and tired of this hiding behind locked doors From a dark past and every lie I've heard has made my people much stronger from the crying and hurt now I'm looking for direction, let me find the current there is reconciliation every time we learn my sole intent is find a little Osiem from the leaders OF MAN cause we're a ghost to them try'n'a spread truth, even to my closest friends I'm not alone, my culture's what my home defends this ain't a game to lose, we need to trace our roots embrace the truth is what I came to do the high suicide rates that face the youth make me afraid, but listen don't be ashamed of you

the closer you look the more that you see the wisdom of elders come back to me
once taken from home
but now we are free
we won't forget where we're meant to be

Show Us The Way

let me show what we're facing protect what is real and sacred we're sharing with one another as I show you my Nation's colours catch the dream, all in this together we are family paint this in your mind on the land living happily I feel disrespect but my hope isn't fading I see it in my friends and I know times are changing when we're gathered in a circle, there's healing through the sharing, the wisdom of our elders says that listening is caring, we're different and they're staring. so let me find the courage, singing for my people, I'll show you that it's worth it

way'ya way'ya way'ya way'ya see who I am, I got something to say hey'ya hey'ya hey'ya hey'ya I'll show you I can, don't want to be afraid I'll keep learning for the rest of my days so I will stand tall, if you teach me the ways as we look to the future, will you see me the same?

I've been wrestling with who I am but let it all go through a dance the calmness that feeds my heart keeps the hunger for who are been feeling anxious, I'm too shy to speak in public but I know one day I will lead and I will love it hoping for my nation, I've been growing, I've been changing connected to world in this emoji generation where people taking selfies, but so many feel alone now we're here to come together, I want to feel at home find some honour & respect and pass on tradition we have lived on through the songs that we're singing

CHORUS

weaving through the wind, can you lead the way riding on the back of an eagle's strength the journey is old the story's been told and the feeling will last forever there's a truth when you know how the language can grow through our culture we come together
